OTHER NOTICES, ALSO SEE NOTICE BOARD

As part of his Reader training Grant Pyner will be on placement at St Mary's, Sanderstead for November, and most of December.

Up to a challenge for all the family? - On Saturday November 18 the Bluebell Railway is closing the track to trains for a Track Trek sponsored walk from East Grinstead to Sheffield Park (11 miles), a complimentary bus will return walkers to EG. Starting between 9.00 and 10.00am it includes a trek through Sharpthorne Tunnel (lights inside). See <http://www.bluebell-railway.co.uk/bluebell/funding/fftf/> for entry forms and other details. I shall be there as a marshal to show you the way south! Peter.

Missing covers - Does anyone know the whereabouts of the large plastic tablecloths? There are several missing from the Miller room kitchen, please could you return them if you have borrowed them. Mary.

From The Times Wednesday Nov 1 - Robert Trench, the Victorian Archbishop of Dublin, was a hypochondriac, obsessed that one day he would be incapacitated. At a state banquet he kept muttering, as he massaged his leg: 'It's come at last, total paralysis, all feeling gone, utterly numb'.

The young duchess sitting next to his immediate right eventually interrupted him 'It may please your Grace to know that it is my leg you have been vigorously rubbing and pinching for the past ten minutes'. The Right Rev'd David Wilbourne.

The Sick - Please pray for all whose names have been placed on the prayer board.

Rachel Plaxton has been in touch to let us know that Edmund is responding well to some new medication. He has put back a little weight now his appetite has improved. He still gets very tired so please continue to pray for both. Gill.

Rest in Peace - We remember Edward (Ted) Humphrey, Bernard Breese and all those who have died recently. We recall Derek Deacon, Stanley Griffiths and all whose anniversary falls at this time, including others known to us.

Notices for inclusion in the pewsheet for Sunday November 12 should be phoned to Peter Beynon (834858, or email plbeynon@globalnet.co.uk) not later than preceding Thursday please.
