9.30am	All Age Eucharist for Mothering Sunday	Celebrant The Rev'd Kathryn Percival: Preacher The Rev'd Sebastian Harries
	Gospel Reading	Luke 2: 33-35 (1028)

The Bishop of Southwark's Lent Call - this year, the Lent Call is supporting initiatives in Zimbabwe connected with education and rebuilding, projects in the Holy Land including schools and a hospital, and three projects in our diocese: Bede House, Croydon APCMH and The Spires Centre. For further information, see: <http://southwark.anglican.org/about-us/what/the-bishop-of-southwarks-> lent-call/ and look at posters in the Miller Room. You can give online (<http://bit.ly/LentCall18>) and you can also find ideas for fund-raising on the website. They include filling a Smartie tube, giving up the proceeds you've saved through your Lenten discipline, buying Lent Call greeting cards (order form in Miller Room), and many more. There is as always our trusty milk churn for donations on Sundays. Please pray for all those whom we are supporting, that their lives might be changed for the better.

Lenten reading - Our friends at St. John's will be reading 40 Days with the Celtic Saints by David Cole (BRF). The Archbishop of Canterbury's Lent book this year is Say it to God: in search of prayer by Luigi Gioia (Bloomsbury Continuum). For a visual companion to Lent, there is The art of Lent: a painting a day from Ash Wednesday to Easter, by Sister Wendy Beckett (SPCK), see painting above. Details of how to sign up for the Church of England's online and text resources for Lent can be found here: <https://www.churchofengland.org/lent>. If you are reading something you'd like to recommend, let us know, and don't forget also to look at our bookstall in the Miller Room. Kathryn.

Monday March 12 - Photographer in church at 2.00pm; we have a photographer coming in for the afternoon. We hope to get pictures reflecting the life of the church and want to capture as many action shots as possible. If you are free that afternoon, please pop along. The more the merrier.

Monday March 12 - Messy Church, Easter Eggstravaganza. There will be singing, crafts, games and food. 3.30-5.30pm. If you are able to help out on the day, please sign-up on the sheet in the Miller Room. Volunteers, as always, very welcome! Thank you! For more information please contact Victoria (Tor) Waite.

MID WEEK SERVICES.

9.30am Parish Eucharist Celebrant The Rev'd Nigel Hinton, Preacher Grant Pyner

Readings Jeremiah 31: 31-34 (793) Hebrews 5: 5-10 (1204)

John 12: 20-33 (1080)

Kathryn will be officiating at St John's this morning

Sunday March 18 - At 6.30pm St John's, Dormansland 'A to Z of Musical Theatre'. SOLD OUT. If you already have a ticket, please think about car sharing as parking is very limited.

Thursday March 22 - Leprosy Mission Lingfield Brach final meeting due to retirement of Dr Moore. To be held at the Jennings Hall at 3.00pm when Dr Ruth Butlin will talk about the work she has witnessed personally. We are mounting a collection for Dr Moore and Mrs Moore in recognition of their faithful service to TLM over many years. Jenny Holroyd (833776) and Gill (833994). All welcome.

Saturday March 24 - East Grinstead Choral Society's 'Come & Sing' Stainer's Crucifixion' at St Swithun's Church, EG. A relaxed and friendly afternoon (at 1.30pm) exploring this well-loved work concluding with a performance at 6.00pm (dress casual). £20 non-members including score hire, hot & cold drinks. Tickets for the evening concert will be £5. Also www.egcs.co.uk.

Sunday March 25 - We are delighted that ten community organisations, including local schools, clubs and businesses have produced a series of fourteen pieces of artwork reflecting The Stations of the Cross. The Stations represent Jesus's progress from his condemnation by Pilate through to his crucifixion and burial. 'Stations' means 'stopping-places' and allows us to pause (or stop) and enter reflectively into those last moments of Jesus's journey. The Stations of the Cross will be on display in the church from Palm Sunday until after Easter. Kathryn
